Hardly Enough Business to Keep the Brokers Awake.

Brokers Awake.

Chicago, Ills., Dec. 26.—Wheat was profoundly and solemniy dull. There was scarcely enough business to keep brokers awake and nearly all of that was of a local scalping order. The opening was firm on a moderate world's shipments and for a time prices held tairly steady, helped later by the visible increase of only 3,319,000 bushels. Later talk that the government report, due tomorrow, would be decidedly bearish and the absence of good shipping inquiry caused weakness and prices declined under ensuing liquidation. May sold between 134,6734,6724, closing 1/4c lower at 724,6724, closing 1/4c lower at 724,6724, closing 1/4c lower at 354, January a shade higher at 354, January a shade higher at 354, January a shade higher at 354, Later prices described firm on light hog receipts and higher prices at the yards. Later prices eased off on liquidation of December lard, in which a squeeze had been threatened. January pork closed 74c lower, lard 224c lower and ribs 5c depressed.
